18. [] LIAISON Received a call from Ms. Harriet Hackney, who identified herself as a representative of the Business Roundtable in Washington. Ms. Hackney was interested in the Director's recent public announcement of a cutback in DDO and how this might be affected by current legislation on mandatory retirement and age discrimination. I told Ms. Hackney we were following this legislation, but that I could not comment on whether this legislation or other factors were taken into account by the Director in reaching his decision on personnel cuts. I referred Ms. Hackney to the Office of Public Affairs for any additional public announcements.
